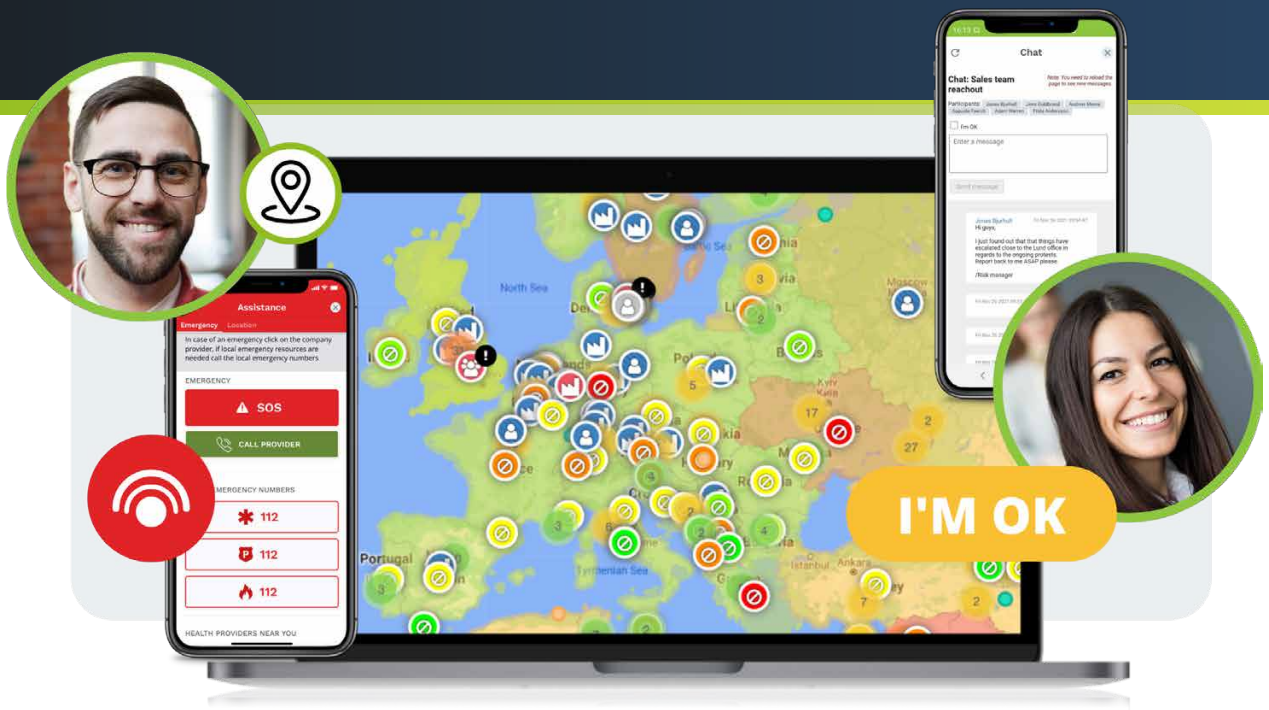
SAFETURE®

SAFETURE PLATFORM - CONTENT AGNOSTIC

World-leading technology with the qualified intelligence you need.



We believe in the power of strong partnerships.

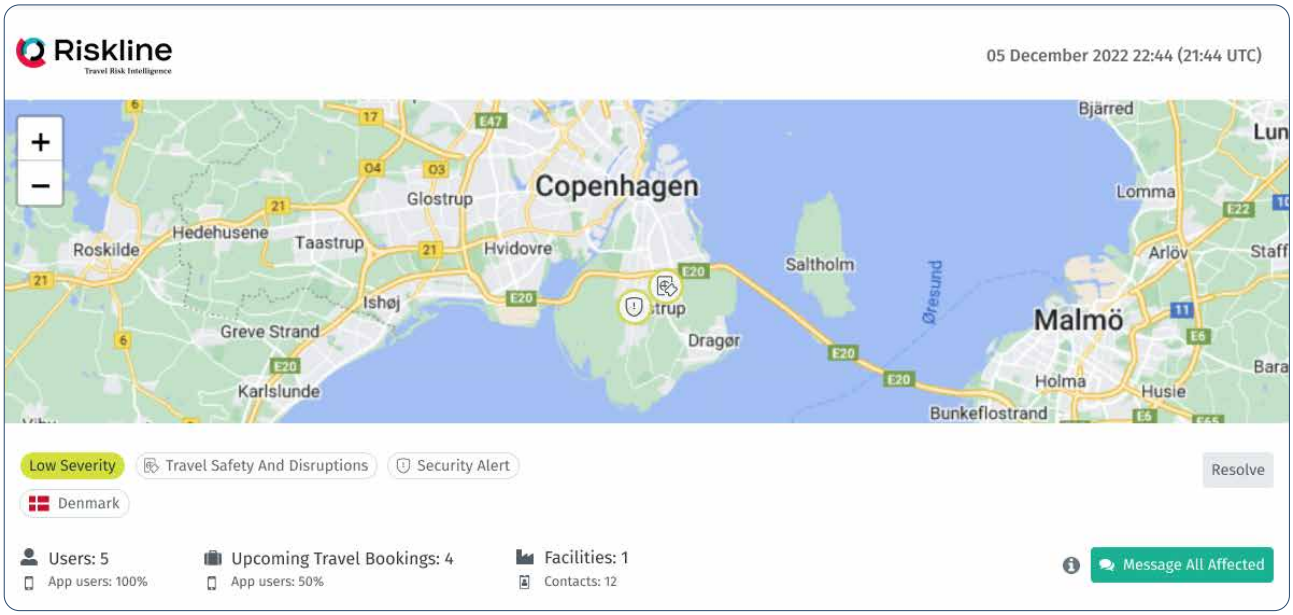
Safeture works with market leading providers of risk intelligence and content data with the vision to become your fusion platform of qualified intelligence.

Our strategic positioning as a stand-alone, risk intelligence and content data agnostic platform, gives you the freedom to choose what provider to integrate into the platform.

Safeture continues to evaluate risk intelligence providers to give partners and clients the best possible intelligence opportunities and emphasize the benefits of an open platform.

We have chosen to profiling one of our Risk Intelligence providers in this datasheet:

Riskline
Travel Risk Intelligence



What we do

At Riskline, we provide risk assessments for hundreds of destinations wordwide – countries, territories, regions, and cities. We monitor the world's political crises, security developments and travel news every hour of every day.

What We Monitor

We built our own custom tool to monitor open-source intelligence (OSINT). Each day, we review the most important developments from hundreds of thousands of local media sources and social media feeds around the world.

How We Assess Risk

We assess risk in every report using 5 risk levels. Our methodology is based on internationally recognized risk management procedures and assessment frameworks.
